Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-03337 Mark Ruskell: Scottish Ballet Ends BP Sponsorship—That the Parliament congratulates Scottish Ballet for ending its partnership with the fossil fuel company BP; supports the joint statement from Scottish Ballet and the National Portrait Gallery that announced the end of the partnership with BP; commends Scottish Ballet for taking this action to further progress the company's green action plan to be carbon neutral by 2030; understands that Scottish Ballet joins other arts and cultural institutions such as the Royal Shakespeare Company and Tate in distancing themselves from the global oil and gas company; commends campaigners, including BP or not BP? Scotland, for what it sees as calling out corporate greenwashing and for encouraging stakeholders to join the global campaign against fossil fuel sponsorship, and calls on all arts and cultural institutions in Scotland to follow suit by severing links to fossil fuel companies.

S6M-03336 Fulton MacGregor: Gael Music Receives £39,320 Grant from Young Start—That the Parliament congratulates Coatbridge and Chryston-based group, Gael Music, on receiving a £39,320 grant from Young Start, which is delivered by The National Lottery Community Fund; understands that the grant will help fund a youth-led project over an 18-month period where people of all ages share stories and music that have survived through a connection to the local landscape; further understands that the stories and music will be tied together through the use of animation and computer aided design modelling; notes that the project will also serve as a resource to educate future generations; wishes the project the best of luck, and looks forward to seeing the results of the project upon completion.

S6M-03335 Sharon Dowey: Coalfields Regeneration Trust Make Award to Cumnock Heritage Centre—That the Parliament recognises the work of the Coalfields Regeneration Trust as it makes an award of £3,000 to Cumnock Heritage Centre to help with website development; understands that the Coalfields Regeneration Trust is the UK's only organisation that is solely dedicated towards regenerating former mining towns and industrial areas across Scotland; notes that the Cumnock Heritage Centre allows generations to compare progress on engineering, transport, agriculture, and steam to understand how these things operated in the past; understands that this project will allow the Centre to become more accessible online, which it is hoped will attract a larger number of visitors to the Centre and to Cumnock more generally, and wishes the Cumnock Heritage Centre well with its new website and its mission to educate visitors about the past.

S6M-03329 Liam Kerr: Mental Health Aberdeen Open its First Retail Store—That the Parliament congratulates Mental Health Aberdeen on the opening of its first retail store in the city; commends what it sees as the excellent work that the organisation does to promote positive mental health; recognises that, since its founding in 1950, it has offered counselling and information to assist Aberdonians, and wishes Mental Health Aberdeen staff and volunteers all the best for the years ahead.

S6M-03328 Monica Lennon: Connor Fyfe, Youngest Musician to Sell Out King Tut's, Glasgow—That the Parliament congratulates musician, Connor Fyfe, on becoming, it understands, the youngest person to sell out King Tut's music venue in Glasgow; understands that Connor, from Bellshill, is set to play St Luke's in Glasgow in the coming months, alongside studying for his National 5 examinations; considers that Connor Fyfe has worked hard on his music and to achieve this milestone, and wishes him well in future.

S6M-03327 Fiona Hyslop: 50 Years of Linlithgow Civic Trust—That the Parliament recognises what it sees as the wide range of activities undertaken by Linlithgow Civic Trust that have benefited the community in the last 50 years, including the research and publication of materials on Linlithgow's history, architecture, transport, art, and guides for local walks; commends the Trust's work in conserving and promoting Linlithgow's Heritage, most recently through the environmental improvements to the local old Carmelite Friary and the erection of an informative plaque for tourists and locals alike to enjoy; congratulates the Trust and volunteering of members of the community on what it sees as their dedication and commitment to their work, particularly throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, and wishes them well in all their future endeavours.

S6M-03326 Maggie Chapman: World Book Day 2022—That the Parliament recognises 3 March 2022 as World Book Day, which is an international, annual celebration that aims to change lives through a love of books, as well as encouraging children to think creatively about their most popular stories; understands that the Scottish Book Trust has pledged to ensure that 3,000 picture books reach families directly through its Book Bug programme, as well as providing 84,000 tokens to nurseries in Scotland and distributing 90,000 £1 book tokens via its BookStart coordinators; notes that 2022's World Book Day theme is You Are A Reader, highlighting the importance for all children to have an opportunity to own and be inspired by inclusive stories written by authors and illustrators who are representative of the society in which people live; encourages everyone to visit their community library or bookstore to support local businesses and authors on World Book Day and beyond; considers that the support provided by World Book Day and partner organisations to be invaluable to many in the north east and across Scotland, and wishes them well with their continuing good work.

S6M-03324 Jackie Dunbar: Aberdeen University Researchers Awarded Queen's Anniversary Prize—That the Parliament congratulates staff and students from the University of Aberdeen's School of Biological Sciences for receiving the Queen's Anniversary Prize; notes that the prize was first awarded in 1993, with the prize being awarded every two years in recognition of world-class excellence and achievement; understands that this is one of the highest honours within further and higher education in the UK; commends what it sees as the team's world-leading research and education on soil science, which is understood to contribute to promoting the control of greenhouse gas emissions and sustainable food production, both locally and internationally; notes that the award was presented by the Duke of Rothesay, and the Princess Royal on 17

February 2022, at St James Palace; understands that the University of Aberdeen's School of Biological Sciences is set to further benefit from the opening of a new Science Teaching Hub and Centre for Environment and Biodiversity, which will further advance the scientific progress being made by the research team, and wishes the research team at the University all the best for the future.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Annabelle Ewing*

S6M-03323 Liam Kerr: Candy Coated Accessories—That the Parliament commends Fiona Ross for the success of her business, Candy Coated Accessories, after recently launching a website; understands that Candy Coated Accessories is a local Fraserburgh business providing luxury lambswool scarves, hats, headbands, hot water bottle covers, cotton baby accessories and eco-friendly craft kits for kids; further understands that the business provides slow fashion, which is more sustainable than fast fashion; acknowledges what it sees as the importance of supporting local business and encouraging entrepreneurship in communities around Scotland, and wishes Fiona and Candy Coated Accessories all the best for the future.

S6M-03322 Pam Gosal: Clydebank Ladies Rugby Football Club—That the Parliament congratulates Clydebank Ladies Rugby Football Club on winning their first match and taking part in their first tournament; understands that coach, Ashley MacIver, of Clydebank, along with Captain Allison West, have assembled a team of 14 local players, and that they have a fantastic work ethic and plan for progression, which aims to encourage a new generation of female rugby players in the local area, and further understands that opportunities can be limited in women's rugby and, therefore, considers that the pioneering spirit of the team should be appreciated and encouraged.

S6M-03320 Alexander Stewart: Royal Highland Show 200th Anniversary Event to Visit Alloa Tower—That the Parliament welcomes the news that the 200-year history of the Royal Highland Show will be highlighted across Scotland for eight days over a four-week period, from the 9 March to 1 April 2022; is enthused that, as part of the "Royal Highland Show Illuminated" project, this history will be projected onto Alloa Tower, on 23 March 2022, between 7.00 and 9.00 pm; believes that this spectacular, immersive installation will include expressive imagery, woven together with never-before-seen treasures and untold stories from the show's archives; notes that the tour is intended to reference how the Royal Highland Show used to tour each of the Royal Highland and Agricultural Society of Scotland (RHASS) regions annually and, it understands, will visit these original eight regions in Scotland where the Show used to occur before settling permanently at Ingliston in 1960; further notes that, lighting up landmarks in each locality for an evening, the free-to-attend projections will last for five minutes and will be played 12 times over the course of that evening, and commends the RHASS on what it considers the unique way of marking the Royal Highland Show's 200th anniversary and further highlighting the Show's positive impact on the rural economy of Scotland.

S6M-03319 Liz Smith: Perth and Kinross Association of Voluntary Service (PKAVS) Celebrates 50th Anniversary—That the Parliament warmly congratulates the Perth and Kinross Association of Voluntary Service (PKAVS) on its upcoming 50th anniversary; understands that the charity helps over 5,000 people each year through its support for carers, minority communities, the third sector, and people experiencing mental health issues; appreciates that its success since its inception in the 1970s is, in large part, due to its dedicated volunteers and staff, and wishes it all the best for the years ahead.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
