Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-05176 Alasdair Allan: Donald Manford's Retirement—That the Parliament congratulates former Comhairle nan Eilean Siar councillor, Donald Manford, on his retirement; understands that Donald was first elected to represent the Barra and Vatersay ward in the 1999 local elections, and latterly the Barraigh, Bhatarsaigh, Eirisgeigh agus Uibhist a Deas ward until May 2022; recognises that Donald had served as Chair of Comhairle nan Eilean Siar's Transportation committee and as leader of the SNP group on the council; notes his reputation as a popular councillor, and a passionate advocate for, and a fierce defender of, his own community; acknowledges the considerable contribution that he has made to political life in the Western Isles, and wishes him the best for a long and happy retirement.

Supported by: Karen Adam*, Jeremy Balfour*, Annabelle Ewing*, Fergus Ewing*, Jackie Dunbar*, Stuart McMillan*, Bill Kidd*, Siobhian Brown*, David Torrance*, Colin Beattie*, Bob Doris*

S6M-05108 Miles Briggs: Cervical Screening Awareness Week—That the Parliament notes the week commencing 20 June 2022 is Cervical Screening Awareness Week; recognises that cervical screening can save lives and help prevent cervical cancer; understands that, currently, almost one in three people do not take up their screening appointment when invited; further understands that the cervical screening procedure is not easy for everyone and that barriers can include pain, embarrassment, and experience of trauma; believes that cervical screening should be accessible for everyone who is eligible; highlights that Jo's Cervical Cancer Trust provides information, tips, and support for anyone who needs them, and calls for all Members of the Scottish Parliament to support what it sees as this important week.

Supported by: Tess White*, Alexander Stewart*, Jeremy Balfour*, Kenneth Gibson*, Foysoil Choudhury*, Bill Kidd*, Liz Smith*, Graeme Dey*, Edward Mountain*, Pam Gosal*, Brian Whittle*, Stuart McMillan*, Paul McLennan*, Sandesh Gulhane* R, Monica Lennon*, Jamie Greene*, Douglas Ross*, Annie Wells*, Evelyn Tweed*, Karen Adam*, Audrey Nicoll*, Craig Hoy*, Russell Findlay*, Finlay Carson*

S6M-05105 Annabelle Ewing: Jim Halkett Retires After 42 Years Serving Kelty—That the Parliament recognises the work of Jim Halkett, of James Halkett Family Butchers, Blackhall Square, Kelty; understands that Jim has dedicated 42 years to serving the communities of Kelty; further understands that Jim has taken the decision to retire on 2 July 2022, which will also see the closure of James Halkett Family Butchers; notes that Jim is a well-loved member of the community; recognises Jim's work during the COVID-19 pandemic as he helped to ensure that no one was left behind; notes that, as a traditional butcher, his recipes are well loved by all; appreciates this will be a sad loss for the people of Kelty, and wishes Jim the very best in retirement.

Supported by: Evelyn Tweed*, Murdo Fraser*, Annie Wells*, Miles Briggs*, Bill Kidd*, Michelle Thomson*, Karen Adam*, Stuart McMillan*, Emma Harper*, Jeremy Balfour*, Jackie Dunbar*, Audrey Nicoll*, David Torrance*

S6M-05048 Murdo Fraser: Blairgowrie Fundraising Group of Mary's Meals Raises £100,000 Over a Decade—That the Parliament congratulates the Blairgowrie fundraising group of Mary's Meals who have raised £100,000 over the last decade; notes that the milestone was achieved earlier this year; further notes that Mary's Meals serves nutritious school meals to children living in some of the world's poorest areas, and that the charity feeds more than two million children every school day in 20 countries across Africa, Asia, Latin America, Eastern Europe, and the Caribbean, and wishes Mary's Meals all the best for the future.

S6M-05045 Stephanie Callaghan: Triumph at Scottish Curry Awards for South Lanarkshire's The Original Mr Chef—That the Parliament congratulates South Lanarkshire's The Original Mr Chef takeaway for being crowned Outstanding Indian Takeaway of the Year at the Scottish Curry Awards 2022; notes that this popular curry house, which has takeaway outlets in Uddingston and Hamilton, achieved success after being voted for by an army of local customers who awarded top marks to The Original Mr Chef for impeccable service, excellent standards and the quality of the delicious curry dishes created; understands that four other Lanarkshire curry establishments picked up Awards in separate categories at this prestigious annual event, each being recognised for being among the best in Scotland, and congratulates all the worthy winners while wishing continued national success to the proprietor and staff of The Original Mr Chef.

S6M-05042 Pauline McNeill: Celebrating 75 Years of "Taxis To Troon"—That the Parliament congratulates the Glasgow taxi drivers and everyone involved in fundraising and organising the 75th annual Taxis To Troon trip for children; notes that around 300 children with special needs were taken in a convoy of decorated taxis from Glasgow to Troon for a day at the seaside on 15 June 2022; believes that the event, which was cancelled twice due to COVID-19, is organised by the city's taxi trade, with other supporters of the initiative including the Celtic FC Foundation and Laurie Ross Insurance, and has been running since 1945; understands that taxi drivers in Glasgow have experienced a difficult few years themselves, and commends their continued commitment to helping children with special needs by providing this joyful and colourful outing, and wishes the organisers and all the participants every success with their future events.

S6M-05041 Paul O'Kane: Restraint Reduction Scotland—That the Parliament formally welcomes the establishment of Restraint Reduction Scotland, a group which highlights the misuse of restrictive practices in Scotland and that advocates to ensure that, where restraints are used, they are done so safely; recognises the long history of campaigning to highlight this issue through various means, such as the Children and Young People's Commissioner Scotland report, published in 2018, No Safe Place: Restraint and Seclusion in Scotland's Schools, the ENABLE Scotland's In Safe Hands? Campaign, and the formation of the Physical Intervention Working Group in 2020; considers that the formation of Restraint Reduction Scotland is the next step on this journey of campaigning to eliminate the misuse of restrictive practices, and celebrates the 100-plus members of Restraint Reduction Scotland who come together to share their knowledge and experience to support the elimination of misuse of restrictive practices in Scotland. R

S6M-05039 Liam McArthur: St Magnus International Festival 2022—That the Parliament congratulates St Magnus International Festival on its 45th anniversary this year, which is set for an in-person return from 17 to 24 June; recognises that the midsummer festival has grown to become one of the foremost arts events in the UK; understands that the annual arts celebration of music, drama, poetry and literature is held across the isles through a range of live performances and events, incorporating Orkney's vibrant heritage and culture; notes that this year's festival will highlight Scotland's Year of Stories and will host The Royal Scottish National Orchestra; acknowledges the contribution of Alasdair Nicolson, the director of the festival since 2010, and the work of the late Sir Peter Maxwell Davies, founder of the festival; believes that the festival makes an invaluable contribution to local tourism, bringing in visitors and artists from across the world, as well as for the local economy and arts sector; applauds the festival for giving a platform to a great variety of artists to showcase their extraordinary talents, and wishes everyone involved a successful and enjoyable week with the creation of more wonderful memories.

Supported by: Alasdair Allan*, Miles Briggs*, Monica Lennon*, Kenneth Gibson*, Jeremy Balfour*, Colin Beattie*, Stuart McMillan*, Douglas Ross*, Edward Mountain*, Alex Cole-Hamilton*, Christine Grahame*

S6M-05038 Stuart McMillan: Riverside Youth Band Celebrate 10th Anniversary—That the Parliament applauds Riverside Youth Band on reaching their 10th anniversary; understands that the champion brass band organised a special concert in Port Glasgow's Community Campus on 17 June 2022 to mark the milestone, taking to the stage alongside youngsters from the Riverside Rookies, under the baton of musical director, Mark Good, and his wife Laura; recognises that the concert also included the world premiere of a new commission for the local band by Scottish composer, Alan Fernie, which pays tribute to the organisation's Inverclyde roots; appreciates that, due to Riverside Youth Band's efforts to maintain their momentum and rehearse during COVID-19 lockdown and despite not being able to meet in person, the group saw their membership grow during the pandemic; notes that the anniversary comes during a busy spell for the band, with the young people recently enjoying a trip to Perth to watch the renowned Black Dyke Band and a performance in Birmingham's Symphony Hall with the National Youth Brass Band of Scotland; believes that Riverside Youth Band's concert provided the perfect opportunity for the group to reflect on their highlights and achievements over the past decade, and wishes them all the best for the future.

S6M-05036 Beatrice Wishart: Rotary Club of Shetland 50th Anniversary—That the Parliament congratulates the Rotary Club of Shetland on its 50th anniversary; understands that the Rotary Club of Shetland was founded in 1972; further understands that over its 50 years, the Rotary Club of Shetland has played an active role in Shetland life through direct involvement in local community activities; praises the fundraising successes of the Rotary Club of Shetland through events such as Ideal Homes exhibitions and car shows, which, it understands, support local, national and international organisations; notes that Rotary is an international organisation founded in Chicago in 1905 to encourage "fellowship and friendship" and the Shetland club is one of many Rotary clubs based in local communities across the world, and that over 1.2 million people globally volunteer their time and talent through Rotary clubs to benefit the lives of others; commends members of the Rotary Club of Shetland for their good work, and wishes them well on their anniversary.

S6M-05034 Beatrice Wishart: The Shetland Times Newspaper 150th Anniversary—That the Parliament congratulates the directors and staff of The Shetland Times newspaper on its 150th anniversary; understands that, since 1872, it has upheld the traditions of a free and fair local press in its weekly printed editions; notes its long commitment to providing readers with a wealth of news and local sports reporting along with coverage of local and national elections, ensuring that readers know what is going on in Shetland; recalls reports of local and national importance such as the grounding of the Braer, the Tall Ships Races, and the NatWest Island Games; commends what it sees as the commitment to provide factual accounts of events, countering "fake news" and competing with social media; further recalls that The Shetland Times was the first weekly newspaper in Scotland to go online in March 1996, alongside its physical presence; wishes The Shetland Times well, and hopes it will continue to provide global readers with the local news from Shetland.

S6M-05032 Collette Stevenson: Congratulations to Aiden Armstrong, Finalist in Show Racism the Red Card's Creative Competition 2022—That the Parliament applauds Aiden Armstrong from St Andrew's and St Bride's in East Kilbride on being a finalist in Show Racism the Red Card's Creative Competition 2022; notes that the ceremony, which took place at Glasgow's Hampden Park, recognised the sterling efforts being made by pupils the length of Scotland in uniting to denounce racism and prejudice; highlights Aiden's message, "To bring about change, you must not be afraid to take the first step. We will fail when we fail to try"; thanks Show Racism the Red Card for its ongoing work in promoting this message, and congratulates Aiden for leading the way in East Kilbride.

S6M-05031 Collette Stevenson: Congratulations to Alice Alves, Master Photographers Scotland Newborn Photographer of the Year 2022 —That the Parliament congratulates East Kilbride's Alice Alves for winning the Master Photographers Scotland (MPS) Newborn Photographer of the Year 2022 award; notes that this year's winning image was of newborn baby, Isla Brown; acknowledges Alice's previous MPS awards for Baby Photographer of the Year, Cherub Photographer of the Year and an Award of Excellence in Family Portraiture; recognises her laudable talent for making the most of an image, and wishes her well for future successes.

S6M-05030 Collette Stevenson: Congratulations to St Leonard's Primary 6 Pupils, Euroquiz Finalists 2022 —That the Parliament congratulates the Primary 6 pupils from St Leonard's Primary School in East Kilbride for making it to the Euroquiz Final 2022; recognises that it is not the first year that St Leonard's has reached the milestone in participating in the Chamber of the Parliament; acknowledges the winners and all of the pupils, from schools the length and breadth of Scotland, who took part; thanks Euroquiz, which is organised annually by the charity, Scottish European Educational Trust, which sees teams of four working together to broaden their knowledge of Europe and the wider world; commends Euroquiz for its contribution to widening the knowledge and skills of this year's participants, and wishes all the young competitors the very best as they prepare to transition to their final year in primary.

S6M-05029 Miles Briggs: Edinburgh and Lothians Regional Equality Council—That the Parliament commends Edinburgh and Lothians Regional Equality Council (ELREC) for its work to support local communities during the COVID-19 lockdown; understands that the ELREC partnered with Fareshare and local businesses, Leith decides, and Edinburgh Community Food (ECF), to provide weekly food boxes to local communities, including BAME communities; recognises that ELREC provided 35 to 60 food boxes each week with the help of volunteers, providing over 2,000 food boxes to local communities; notes that ELREC launched the Equally Informed project to provide trustful information to thousands of marginalised people in Scotland, with the focus being to help those in Edinburgh and Lothians; understands that this was due to some communities relying on foreign sources for COVID-19 information and not the information that was provided by the NHS and local government because of certain barriers; understands that ELREC received many enquiries from BAME communities asking for help with digital devices, due to schooling, exams, and socialising having shifted to online approaches; further understands that, through a grant to Connecting Scotland, ELREC was able to secure and provide 85 digital devices to families in need in Edinburgh, and to provide a further 135 devices to low income, BAME and single parent families, and expresses its thanks to funders, volunteers, and active community members for their time and efforts.

S6M-05027 Monica Lennon: Infant Mental Health Awareness Week—That the Parliament supports Infant Mental Health Awareness Week, from 13 to 19 June 2022; notes that infant mental health is the term used to describe the social and emotional wellbeing and development of children in the earliest years of life; understands that infant mental health is influenced by secure attachments and the quality and reliability of early caregiving relationships; further understands that infants who are exposed to trauma and maltreatment are at greater risk of experiencing a range of poor physical and mental health problems throughout their lives; recognises that evidence shows that supporting early relationships and babies' developing mental health can reduce the need for later intervention services across the life course, and understands that, despite a well-established awareness of the devastating consequences that adverse childhood experiences can have upon future health and wellbeing, infants in Scotland have very little access to mental health services.

Supported by: Tess White*, Carol Mochan*, Colin Beattie*, Jeremy Balfour*, Foysoil Choudhury*, Alex Cole-Hamilton*, Miles Briggs*, Finlay Carson*, Annie Wells*, Audrey Nicoll*, Beatrice Wishart*

S6M-05026 Pam Gosal: Cameron House Manager Wins National Hospitality Award—That the Parliament congratulates Cameron House Hotel's Training and Development Manger, Laura Dunphy, on receiving the "Most Aspiring Young Leader" at the Caterer's Acorn Awards 2022; notes that, at the young age of 29, she has managed to achieve impressive results for the hotel and has put in place 75 new training staff within various departments who have given over 15,000 hours of training, and considers that the hospitality sector brings in vital funds to the West Scotland region and creates vital jobs for rural communities.

with a view to building a working relationship between the charity and the school; recognises that North Ayrshire Women's Aid is a unique specialist service that provides emotional and practical support to women and children affected by domestic abuse; congratulates the pupils on their success and kindness, and wishes them all the best for the future.

S6M-04966 Ruth Maguire: Abbeyfield House, Irvine—That the Parliament recognises Abbeyfield House, Irvine, for ranking in the top 2% of those in Scotland in The Times newspaper's league table of care homes; understands that the report concentrated on the standard of care provided by homes, especially focussing on the health, wellbeing, safety and quality of life enjoyed by residents, with an emphasis on everyone having the right to good quality, compassionate care, which meets their needs and respects their right; further understands that Abbeyfield House ranked 14th out of 800 care homes; recognises the staff at the home who have been working tirelessly over the years, including during an extremely difficult time for the sector throughout the COVID-19 pandemic; congratulates them on what it sees as their exemplary work, and wishes the staff and residents the very best for the future.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no statement is made that the Scottish Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 6 Proposals:

Proposals for Bills – Scottish Parliament | Scottish Parliament Website

Final Proposal for a Member's Bill

Douglas Ross: Proposed Right to Addiction Recovery (Scotland) Bill—Proposal for a Bill to give those addicted to drugs and/or alcohol the right to access the necessary addiction treatment they require. (lodged 30 May 2022)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.

Corrections

Members' Corrections

Official Report, Meeting of the Parliament, 26 May 2022

Ben Macpherson has identified an error in his contribution to the Scottish Government debate Social Security Benefits on Thursday 26 May 2022 and has provided the following correction.

At column 109, paragraph 2—

Original text—

The Scottish child payment is supporting more than 100,000 children as we speak, and, when we roll that out and extend that benefit, we will be supporting 400,000 children across Scotland.

Corrected text—

The Scottish child payment is supporting more than 100,000 children as we speak, and, when we roll that out and extend that benefit, around 400,000 children will be eligible for support across Scotland.

Official Report, Meeting of the Parliament, 21 June 2022

Kaukab Stewart has identified an error in her contribution and provided the following correction.

At column 26, paragraph 4—

Original text—

As Filippo Grandi, United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, stated:

“The UK Government has breached the foundational principle of international refugee protection.”

Corrected text—

As Professor Alison Phipps, UNESCO chair in refugee integration through languages and the arts, stated:

“The UK Government has breached the foundational principle of international refugee protection.”

Members' corrections are published alongside, but do not replace the original contribution and can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/chamber-and-committees/official-report/corrections-and-changes-to-the-official-report>

Corrections will be listed on the members' corrections page of the Scottish Parliament website until the end of the session in which the correction was made. After that the correction will still be available in the Official Report of the relevant meeting.
