Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S6M-04285 Clare Adamson: World Fibromyalgia Awareness Day—That the Parliament recognises that 12 May is World Fibromyalgia Awareness Day; understands that Fibromyalgia (FM) is a long-term chronic pain condition, although some people can also experience many other symptoms; further understands that there is no specific test, nor cure, that it is often misdiagnosed and the exact cause remains unknown; understands that anyone can develop symptoms, that it has been reported in all age groups, including children, but generally develops between the ages of 30 and 50, and affects seven times more women than men; further understands that one in 20 people may be affected by FM symptoms of some degree at some time during their life; expresses concern at reports that FM is often not recognised as the debilitating condition that it believes that it is, where it affects individuals' ability to work and carry out everyday tasks, as symptoms and the intensity of pain can vary from hour to hour and day to day; welcomes what it sees as the Scottish Government's commitment to making improvements for those living with chronic pain, through continued funding into research, and applauds all campaigners and support groups across the country, who continue to raise awareness of FM, providing support to those affected and their care support networks, offering advice, guidance, advocacy and providing educative information.

*S6M-04284 Maurice Golden: Fun First Named the Military Family Charity of 2022—That the Parliament congratulates Fun First on being named the Military Family Charity of 2022 at the Celebrating Forces Families awards reception; understands that the charity is based in Helensburgh and provides fun and educational sessions to local pre-school children and their families, both in Helensburgh and nearby communities; recognises the support that Fun First provided to families during the COVID-19 pandemic, through online sessions, the introduction of a new Fun First Babies group to support new parents, and the creation of a mothers walking group; believes that this award is well deserved, and wishes those behind the charity every success in continuing their important work in service of the armed forces community.

*S6M-04283 Tom Arthur: Non-Domestic Rates (Valuation Notices) (Scotland) Regulations 2022 [draft]—That the Local Government, Housing and Planning Committee recommends that the Non-Domestic Rates (Valuation Notices) (Scotland) Regulations 2022 [draft] be approved.

*S6M-04282 Maggie Chapman: Workers in Aberdeen and Aberdeenshire Successfully Negotiate 10% Pay Rise—That the Parliament congratulates workers in Aberdeen and Aberdeenshire who, it understands, were able to secure a 10% pay rise for Stagecoach Bluebird drivers in north east Scotland; understands that what it sees as this inflation-busting deal was negotiated by shop stewards who were determined to improve the jobs, pay, and conditions of members in the bus industry; recognises what it sees as the vital service that workers in the bus industry deliver to local communities across the country; highlights what it considers as the importance of successful negotiations, especially in key service sectors, during both the COVID-19 pandemic and ongoing cost-of-living crisis; considers the support provided by Unite Scotland and Stagecoach Bluebird to be invaluable to many across the north east, and passes on its best wishes for every success in the future.

*S6M-04281 Ash Regan: Legal Aid and Advice and Assistance (Miscellaneous Amendment) (Scotland) (No. 2) Regulations 2022 [draft]—That the Criminal Justice Committee recommends that the Legal Aid and Advice and Assistance (Miscellaneous Amendment) (Scotland) (No. 2) Regulations 2022 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Keith Brown

*S6M-04279 Colin Beattie: Musselburgh Tennis Club Awarded Regional and National Winners for Communities and Parks of the Year Award—That the Parliament congratulates Musselburgh Tennis Club on being awarded the regional and national winners for Communities and Parks of the Year Award at the national 2022 LTA Tennis Awards; understands that winners were judged from over 2,000 public nominations, and were first judged by 38 county associations, resulting in 380 county award winners, who were then put forward for regional awards, which Musselburgh Tennis Club has won; acknowledges that this is a great achievement for Musselburgh Tennis Club; believes that it demonstrates its dedication to tennis; hopes that this award encourages more people to take up the sport locally, and wishes Musselburgh Tennis Club the best in its future endeavours.

*S6M-04275 Emma Harper: ME Awareness Day 2022—That the Parliament notes that ME Awareness Day is 12 May 2022; notes that the date was chosen as it encompasses the birthday of Florence Nightingale, who was believed to have chronic fatigue syndrome; understands that ME, myalgic encephalomyelitis, which is commonly referred to as chronic fatigue syndrome and, according to the World Health Organization (WHO), shares characteristics with fibromyalgia, affects around 20,000 people in Scotland, and is defined by WHO as a neurological condition that can cause extreme tiredness and is often linked to depression, social isolation and loneliness; understands that ME affects each person differently, but that the main symptoms include post-exertional malaise, a period of intense exhaustion that lasts for more than 24 hours following exertion, chronic pain, sleep disturbance, as well as flu-like symptoms such as headache, sore throat, painful lymph nodes, dizziness, nausea and problems with memory and concentration; further understands that, while the causes of ME remain unclear, there is evidence that suggests that the condition is caused by a change in a person's immune system and the way in which it responds to infection or stress, and that ME shares some features of autoimmune illnesses, which are diseases in which the immune system attacks healthy tissues in the body, like in rheumatoid arthritis; understands that continued research is currently underway across the globe into the link between COVID-19 infection and ME, with researchers, including at the University of the West of Scotland, examining whether long COVID shares similar characteristics with ME, and thanks the charity, Action for ME, as well as local ME support groups, including the Dumfries and Galloway ME, Fibromyalgia and Chronic Fatigue Support Group, for all that they do to support and lobby for the interests of people living with ME.

*S6M-04274 Liam McArthur: Wishing Maureen Herdman a Happy Retirement—That the Parliament congratulates Maureen Herdman on her recent retirement as a Youth and Family Learning Worker at Orkney Islands Council, after more than 30 years making a difference to the lives of young people throughout Orkney; understands that Maureen, affectionally known to many as "Mo", started as a volunteer at Stromness Youth Club before working with Youth Scotland and latterly Community Learning and Development at Orkney Islands Council; further understands that Maureen has supported a range of organisations over the years, most notably, Police Scotland Youth Volunteers' Group and Orkney Association of Youth Groups, to deliver a range of programmes with local schools and groups including, Dynamic Youth, First Aid Ready, Confidence to Cook and Hi5 training; understands that Maureen's exemplary youth work was recognised nationally in 2014 as a Queen's Jubilee baton bearer in the run up to the Commonwealth Games and in 2018 when she was presented with an award by the Lifetime Achievement Fellowship of YouthLink Scotland; believes that Maureen has made an invaluable difference to countless young people over the years and will be hugely missed by the local youth work sector; thanks Maureen for what it sees as her incredible public service, and wishes her all the very best for a long, happy and well-deserved retirement filled of time spent with her family and continued volunteering on behalf of the causes that remain close to her heart.

Supported by: Stuart McMillan*, Douglas Ross*, Bill Kidd*, Jeremy Balfour*, Annabelle Ewing*, Miles Briggs*

*S6M-04273 Tess White: GSK Montrose Site Celebrates 70th Anniversary—That the Parliament congratulates the staff at GSK Montrose on the 70th anniversary of the opening of its Angus-based facility in May 1952; understands that GSK Montrose employs around 400 staff, as well as contractors, playing a significant role in the local and national economy; notes that GSK invested £54 million in a new state-of-the-art production building in Montrose, which opened in 2018; believes that this highlights the organisation's ongoing commitment to the area and the wider region; acknowledges what it sees as the philanthropic activities carried out by the staff at GSK Montrose, supporting local charitable organisations and community projects; understands that GSK Montrose manufactures and supplies active pharmaceutical ingredients for some of GSK's most significant medicines, including the active ingredients for GSK's respiratory medicines, which it has produced for more than 50 years; considers that GSK Montrose has been at the forefront of the fight against HIV/AIDS for three decades, manufacturing and supplying ingredients for HIV/AIDS treatments; commends the staff at GSK Montrose for, it believes, reflecting the organisation's values of being ambitious for patients, accountable for impact and doing the right thing, as well as for what it sees as their focus on continuous improvement to increase efficiencies and reduce the cost of goods; notes what it sees as the importance of safety and quality compliance, which, it understands, GSK Montrose believes are the cornerstones of all activities at the site; highlights that every day an estimated 30 million people globally reportedly take a medicine that includes ingredients made at GSK Montrose, and recognises what it considers as the significant and positive impact that GSK Montrose staff are having on the health and wellbeing of people around the world.

*S6M-04269 Finlay Carson: Scottish Curling Stars Win Mixed World Curling Title—That the Parliament offers its warmest congratulations to curling stars Eve Muirhead and Bobby Lammie, who successfully defended Scotland's World Curling Mixed Doubles Champions title when they defeated the hosts, Switzerland, 9-7 in a thrilling match; acknowledges that this latest triumph comes just weeks after Eve led Team GB to victory, winning a gold medal at the Winter Olympics in Beijing; notes also that Bobby represented Team GB at the same event, winning a silver medal, before competing in Canada's Grand Slam of curling events, reaching a fifth successive final at The Players Championship, where they became the first from Scotland to win the prestigious Pinty's Cup, and wishes Bobby and Team Bruce Mouat every success as it competes in the last Grand Slam event at the KIOTI Tractor Champions Cup this month.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Annie Wells*, Stuart McMillan*, Pam Gosal*, Tess White*

*S6M-04268 Stuart McMillan: Mhairi McCann Wins Environmental Award at Young Scot Awards—That the Parliament congratulates Mhairi McCann, from Inverclyde, on winning the Environmental Award at The Sunday Mail Young Scot Awards, on 27 April 2022, for, it understands, conducting beach cleans in the area, and her work with Youth STEM 2030, which Mhairi helped found, to empower young people to use science, technology, engineering and maths in order to make a positive change in the world; believes that this award is testament to the time and effort that Mhairi dedicates to the climate crisis, and her commitment to empowering young people to lead the conversation and develop technological advancements to help deliver positive change, and wishes her all the best as she continues with her award-winning climate work.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Jeremy Balfour*, Kenneth Gibson*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Miles Briggs*

*S6M-04267 Stuart McMillan: Port Glasgow Baker Recognised for Raising Over £80,000 for Charity—That the Parliament thanks Bernadette Barr, from Port Glasgow, for using her baking talents to raise more than £80,000 for Mary's Meals; understands that Bernadette has baked and sold almost 6,000 cakes at her regular "Baked With Love" afternoon tea events over the last decade, and specialises in whipped cream puffs, ginger cakes, old-school cakes and rocky road, all from her kitchen in Port Glasgow; recognises that Bernadette's latest afternoon tea took place at the Little Sisters of the Poor complex, on 23 April 2022, which raised more than £3,000, and understands that the very next day she took part in Glasgow's Kiltwalk for Mary's Meals; understands that Bernadette's generosity is inspired by her mother, who fundraised to help children living in the world's poorest countries, and that this is why Bernadette decided to raise funds for Mary's Meals as it serves nutritious school meals in 20 of the world's poorest countries, many of which are impacted by conflict and natural disasters; applauds Bernadette for her commitment to charity, and wishes her well as she continues to bake and fundraise for the international aid charity.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Miles Briggs*, Bill Kidd*, Jeremy Balfour*, Russell Findlay*, Annabelle Ewing*

*S6M-04266 Siobhian Brown: David Bennett, Prestwick Golf Club—That the Parliament applauds David Bennett, who is the chef at Prestwick Golf Club, for raising £13,365 for the Beatson Cancer Charity and the Ayrshire Hospice; understands that David wrote a cookbook containing 40 dishes from his 40 years of experience as a chef, and that it has sold more than 1,000 copies since being released last year; recognises that the money raised will help the Beatson Cancer Charity and Ayrshire Hospice improve services for the people that they care for; notes that both charities cared for David's late wife, Anne, and are therefore close to his heart; congratulates David on his work, and wishes him every success for the future.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Audrey Nicoll*, Bill Kidd*, Edward Mountain*, Kenneth Gibson*, Miles Briggs*, Colin Beattie*, Jim Fairlie*, Murdo Fraser*, Jackie Dunbar*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Annabelle Ewing*, Stuart McMillan*, Russell Findlay*

*S6M-04264 Foysoyl Choudhury: Lauriston Farm Leading the Way for Scotland's Future as a Good Food Nation—That the Parliament congratulates Lauriston Farm, in Edinburgh, on what it sees as its success in realising its vision of being a large-scale urban food growing project that benefits local communities and beyond; understands that the farm seeks to address the issue of availability of local fresh produce and reduce the distance between people and the sources of their food; recognises the farm's efforts to address environmental degradation, including through tree planting; further recognises the educational aspect of the farm's work, which, it understands, allows people from the city to gain experience in food production and an understanding of the wider food system, and believes that projects such as Lauriston Farm are leading the way forward in Scotland's journey to being a Good Food Nation.

*S6M-04262 Kaukab Stewart: University of Glasgow Delivering on United Nations Sustainable Development Goals—That the Parliament congratulates and commends the University of Glasgow on its ranking at 19 out of 1,046 international institutions in the world for its positive impact on society in the Times Higher Education Impact Rankings; considers that this position in these rankings demonstrates the difference that the university is making in the world by working towards the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs); notes that the university earned second place in the same report for its achievements in the Sustainable Cities and Communities SDG; understands that, in 2014, the university was the first in the UK to declare that it would divest from fossil fuels within a decade, and, in 2017, was the first in Scotland to declare a climate emergency, and urges the university to forge ahead towards its commitment to achieve carbon neutrality by 2030.

*S6M-04260 Liam Kerr: Macduff Harbour E-fish Market—That the Parliament welcomes the new plans by Aberdeenshire Council, endorsed by the Macduff Harbour's advisory committee, to introduce an "e-fish" market, allowing customers to place orders online; understands that there is a large demand for an online market, which, it believes, will mean smaller buyers will have a better chance of buying fish and fisherman will get a fairer price for their catch; applauds this innovation, which, it considers, will provide more jobs for the local area and create a new market for local fisherman, and hopes that this a great success.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no statement is made that the Scottish Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 6 Proposals:

Proposals for Bills – Scottish Parliament | Scottish Parliament Website

Final Proposal for a Member's Bill

Christine Grahame: Proposed Welfare of Dogs (Scotland) Bill—A proposal for a bill to improve the health and wellbeing of dogs throughout their lives, including by establishing a more responsible and informed approach to acquiring and owning a puppy or dog; and to regulate the selling or transferring of puppies from unlicensed litters, including by introducing a power for the Scottish Government to introduce regulations. (lodged 28 April 2022)

The proposal was accompanied by a statement of reasons, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above, or in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
