Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

*S6M-07469 Angela Constance: National Drugs Mission: Cross-government Response to the Drug Deaths Taskforce Report, Changing Lives—That the Parliament welcomes the cross-government response to the Scottish Drug Deaths Taskforce final report, Changing Lives; supports the transformational principles underpinning that response of treating problem drug use as any other health condition is treated, and ensuring that people with lived and living experience of problem drug use are included in the co-production of policy and strategy development in any area of government policy or delivery that affects them; recognises that cross-government planning and activity is needed to support the National Mission, and that this has resulted in over 80 actions; acknowledges the publication of the stigma action plan, which will play a vital role in the culture change required, and recognises the role of the Scottish Parliament in this regard, and believes that, with commitment across government, the Parliament and beyond, it is possible to save lives and improve health and wellbeing.

Supported by: Nicola Sturgeon*

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

*S6M-07430 Stephen Kerr: The Impact of COVID-19 Lockdowns on the Language Skills of Young Children—That the Parliament is concerned about the growing expert opinion that COVID-19 lockdowns have had a detrimental impact on the language skills of young children; is further concerned by a study by the Royal College of Speech and Language Therapists in Scotland, which found that almost 90% of nursery nurses said that more children had trouble understanding and using basic language; is worried that the loss of language skill could lead to increased risk of behavioural difficulties and future unemployment, and notes the belief that children in the Central Scotland region who are at risk of being in this situation should receive urgent help.

(b) that, for the purposes of Portfolio Questions in the week beginning 16 January 2023, in rule 13.7.3, after the word “except” the words “to the extent to which the Presiding Officer considers that the questions are on the same or similar subject matter or” are inserted.

*S6M-07443 Liam McArthur: Thanking David Hope-Jones OBE—That the Parliament recognises what it sees as the outstanding contribution of the Scotland Malawi Partnership’s (SMP) outgoing chief executive, David Hope-Jones OBE, to the strengthening of the bilateral relationship between Scotland and Malawi; understands that David has led the Scotland Malawi Partnership for nearly 15 years, over which time he has helped create, it considers, one of the closest and most impactful two-way Global North/South partnerships; commends what it sees as David's value-led leadership at SMP, and through the Scottish Parliament's Cross Party Group on Malawi, which, it believes, has helped to deepen the social, economic and cross-party bonds between the two nations, and to empower SMP's sister organisation, the Malawi Scotland Partnership; applauds David's hard work during the COVID-19 pandemic where, it understands, he facilitated a hugely successful fundraising campaign that enabled Malawians to repair over £500,000 worth of lifesaving oxygen concentrators; acknowledges David as one of the youngest ever recipients of an OBE, aged 33 in 2016, which, it believes, demonstrates his tireless commitment to enhancing lives and promoting sustainable international development; thanks David for his service, which has benefited countless lives, and wishes him every success in his new role as chief executive of the South of Scotland Destination Alliance. R

Supported by: Alasdair Allan*, Alexander Stewart*

*S6M-07441 Alexander Burnett: Linnorie Firewood Services Donates £750 to Macmillan Cancer Care—That the Parliament celebrates that Linnorie Firewood Services has donated £750 to Macmillan Cancer care; understands that staff agreed to contribute part of their wages, alongside profits from the business, to the donation; commends what it sees as the generosity of the staff during the current cost of living crisis, and believes that this donation will aid the local efforts of Macmillan Cancer Care in Huntly to support those living with cancer.

*S6M-07439 Maggie Chapman: The Scottish Premiere of SEVEN—That the Parliament welcomes the Scottish premiere of SEVEN, which took place on 8 December 2022 at the Scottish Parliament to mark International Human Rights Day, which is observed annually on 10 December; understands that SEVEN is a piece of documentary theatre that tells the true stories of seven women who bravely fought for the well-being of women, families, and children around the globe in Russia, Cambodia, Guatemala, Afghanistan, Nigeria, Pakistan and Northern Ireland; notes that SEVEN has been seen by over 25,000 people in 32 countries and has been translated into 20 languages; commends the 22 women involved in the project, who, it understands, are all human rights activists in their local communities, are diverse in terms of their ages, background and experiences and have various focuses, including disability access, food poverty, racial justice, education, housing rights and mental health stigma and exclusion; understands that SEVEN was developed and presented by Making Rights Real, which is a Scottish grassroots human rights organisation, as a catalyst for change within the participants’ own lives and communities, and wishes everyone involved continued success in their future endeavours.

*S6M-07437 Pam Gosal: Celebrating Chinese New Year 2023 – Year of the Rabbit—That the Parliament congratulates all those celebrating Chinese New Year 2023, the year of the rabbit, in Scotland and around the world; acknowledges that the festival celebrates the arrival of spring and the beginning of a New Year on the traditional Chinese lunisolar calendar; understands that legend states that the festival stemmed from an ancient battle against the Nian; further understands that ways in which people celebrate this festival include displaying red paper, burning bamboo, lighting candles, wearing red clothes, giving red gift envelopes, and watching firework displays, and notes that celebrations of the Chinese New Year traditionally last for 16 days, which this year begins from 22 January 2023.

*S6M-07434 Sharon Dowey: Ayrshire Fiddle Orchestra's 40th Anniversary Concert—That the Parliament congratulates the Ayrshire Fiddle Orchestra on what it considers its impressive 40th Anniversary concert at Ayr Town Hall on 15 December 2022; understands that the current orchestra of around 80 nine- to 18-year-olds were joined by many former members to perform a variety of traditional Scottish music to a packed Ayr Town Hall; applauds the efforts of president Wallace Galbraith, directors Euan Terras, Kathleen Terras and Ellen Martin, and musical directors David T Moore and Neil Eggo, for all their hard work and efforts in making this event a success for all involved; considers that the orchestra helps young people develop music skills in a fun orchestral setting, and allows them to travel around the world on international tours; believes that the orchestra is heading off on its first post-COVID-19 international tour to the southern states of the USA in July 2023, and wishes all involved the very best for this tour and the future.

*S6M-07433 Sharon Dowey: New Cumnock Man Appointed MBE in the New Year's Honours List—That the Parliament congratulates New Cumnock's Sam McKnight on being appointed an MBE in the New Year Honours list for his services to the fashion and beauty industries; believes that Sam's career began after moving to London in the 1970s, where he was employed at Molton Brown, a luxury hair salon, before moving to New York in the 1980s; understands that his career has involved more than 190 cover shoots with Vogue Magazine, and has seen him work with what it considers world-renowned people like Madonna and Princess Diana; further understands that he has also received lifetime achievement awards from The Scottish Fashion Awards and Creative Head Awards; commends Sam for what it sees as his hard work and dedication to the industry, and wishes him continued success.

*S6M-07432 Sandesh Gulhane: Glasgow Named 92nd Best City in the World for 2023—That the Parliament welcomes news that Glasgow has been named the 92nd best city in the world for 2023 in a list of one hundred cities compiled by real estate and tourism firm, Resonance; notes that Glasgow was the only Scottish city to appear on the list, which takes into account six different factors, including place, product, programming, people, prosperity and promotion; welcomes the recognition that, according to the ranking, Glasgow is an attractive city for entrepreneurs, is the sixth most educated city on the planet, and has a thriving cultural and music scene, having been named a UNESCO City of Music in 2008, and looks forward to promoting Glasgow in the years ahead as a destination of international note.

*S6M-07431 Roz McCall: Carnegie Judo Club's Andrew Swinburne Wins Judo Scotland Award—That the Parliament congratulates Andrew Swinburne, from West Fife, on being awarded the Technical Official and Referee of the Year accolade by Judo Scotland; understands that the award was presented as part of Judo Scotland's Coaching and Volunteer Awards, and recognises what it sees as the dedication and hard work that roles such as those of technical official and referees make to the competition structure of the sport in Scotland; notes that Mr Swinburne is a

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
