Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S6M-07617 Keith Brown: Public Order Bill - UK Legislation—That the Parliament agrees that the relevant amendments of the Public Order Bill, introduced in the House of Lords on 9 November 2022, relating to the extension of existing powers at Part II of the Public Order Act 1986 to the British Transport Police (BTP) in Scotland for policing public processions and assemblies on the railway, so far as these matters fall within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament, should be considered by the UK Parliament.

Supported by: Elena Whitham*

S6M-07616 John Swinney: UK Infrastructure Bank Bill - UK Legislation—That the Parliament agrees that the relevant provisions of the UK Infrastructure Bank Bill, introduced in the House of Lords on 11 May 2022 and subsequently amended, relating to the investment activities of the UK Infrastructure Bank in Scotland so far as these matters fall within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament and alter the executive function of the Scottish Ministers, should be considered by the UK Parliament.

Supported by: Richard Lochhead*, Ivan McKee*, Tom Arthur*

S6M-07615 Màiri McAllan: Genetic Technology (Precision Breeding) Bill - UK Legislation—That the Parliament notes the legislative consent memorandum lodged by the Scottish Government on 12 December 2022; agrees not to give consent to the Genetic Technology (Precision Breeding) Bill, and calls on the UK Government to amend the Bill to restrict the geographical application of clause 42, or to otherwise make it a requirement for it to seek the consent of the Scottish Ministers when making provision within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament, in order to properly respect devolved responsibilities.

Supported by: Mairi Gougeon*

S6M-07613 Miles Briggs: Homeless Emergency—That the Parliament recognises the large number of homeless people in Scotland, people in temporary accommodation and people on social housing waiting lists; expresses particular concern at the number of vulnerable people in these categories, such as veterans, children and disabled people, and calls on the Scottish

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-07608 George Adam on behalf of the Parliamentary Bureau: Stage 3 Timetable—That the Parliament agrees that, during stage 3 of the Hunting with Dogs (Scotland) Bill, debate on groups of amendments shall, subject to Rule 9.8.4A, be brought to a conclusion by the time limits indicated, those time limits being calculated from when the stage begins and excluding any periods when other business is under consideration or when a meeting of the Parliament is suspended (other than a suspension following the first division in the stage being called) or otherwise not in progress:

Groups 1 to 4: 1 hour 40 minutes

Groups 5 and 6: 3 hours 40 minutes

Groups 7 and 8: 5 hours 10 minutes

Groups 9 to 11: 6 hours 10 minutes.

S6M-07595 Pauline McNeill: The Tron Theatre—That the Parliament notes with concern news that Glasgow's Tron Theatre has had its funding from Glasgow City Council removed; understands that Glasgow City Council has been providing funding to the theatre for over three decades; recognises what it sees as the role of the Tron Theatre in contributing to Glasgow's cultural vibrancy, and that it is currently enjoying a particularly successful period of attendance and critical acclaim; believes that the decision to remove funding from the theatre will have a significant impact on what the theatre can achieve and the number of staff that it can employ, and urges Glasgow City Council to remember Glasgow's rich history as a city of culture and reconsider its decision to defund what it considers as this important institution.

S6M-07590 Stuart McMillan: Glenbrae Children's Centre Recognised for its Cyber Skills—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Glenbrae Children's Centre has been given a top award from Digital Schools Awards Scotland (DSAS) for its work to promote the use of technology in classrooms; understands that the Greenock-based facility worked together as one big team to promote, recognise and encourage new tech skills using digital tools and ideas; notes that an assessor came to the nursery and spoke to the children and staff about what they had learned; believes that the skills the children have learned will help them stay safe online; applauds Glenbrae Children's Centre for utilising digital technology to the benefit of both staff and children, and wishes the nursery all the best as it continues to develop the use of these tools.

to coaching and further development of athletes, while supporting and demonstrating valued performance sport behaviours within coaching, as well as building relationships with players and the team; acknowledges that Julie's late husband, Russell, was a former Scotland international who won a bronze medal at the 2002 Commonwealth Games in Manchester; understands that Julie works with Disability Sport Fife, whilst leading a sports academy in Edinburgh and has also established the Russell Hogg Trust supporting athletes with a disability, and aspiring badminton players, aged between six and 16, and continues to work on Badminton Scotland's regional programme; expresses its gratitude to Julie for her hard work, dedication and the contribution she has made to the sport locally and beyond, and extends its very best wishes for continued success to her in the future.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Colin Beattie*, Siobhian Brown*, Annabelle Ewing*, Stuart McMillan*, Murdo Fraser*, Bill Kidd*, Jeremy Balfour*

S6M-07587 Paul Sweeney: Recognising the Work of the International Network of Street Papers—That the Parliament recognises the work of International Network of Street Papers (INSP), which has been a recognised charity in Scotland for almost 30 years; notes the reach of the charity, which sends out news features across the world to 93 papers in 35 different countries, with a small team of just five staff members based in Glasgow; commends the commitment of the network to challenge what it sees as misconceptions and stigma around homelessness and poverty, by championing lived experience in journalism; considers the role of the network in ensuring that journalism amplifies the voices of those who are most vulnerable, and believes that organisations like INSP need secure and consistent resource to support their work in maintaining the integrity of printed journalism.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*, Bill Kidd*, Rona Mackay*, Emma Roddick*, Karen Adam*, Jackie Baillie*, Pam Duncan-Glancy*, Bob Doris*, Kenneth Gibson*

S6M-07584 Michelle Thomson: The Legacy of Falkirk GP, Dr Gillies Sinclair—That the Parliament recognises the career and legacy of Dr Gillies Sinclair, a GP who served constituents of Falkirk for decades, who passed away on 10 January 2023; notes that throughout his career, Dr Sinclair served the communities of Grangemouth and Camelon with the care he provided as a GP; understands that Dr Sinclair also played a role in the founding of Strathcarron Hospice, an organisation, which has provided specialist palliative care and support to those with life-limiting conditions throughout Forth Valley for over five decades; notes that that Dr Gillies was also club doctor for Falkirk Football Club, alongside being a member of the club's board of directors for a period; understands that Dr Sinclair also contributed to Falkirk's communities, including his work with Falkirk Rotary Club and Falkirk Probus Club, and was keen to extend opportunities to young people through the Young Leaders initiative that he helped to develop; commends Dr Gillies Sinclair for his fantastic work and the contributions he made to Falkirk district over a dedicated career, and extends its sympathies to his family, friends and the wider community following his death.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Stuart McMillan*, Jenni Minto*, Emma Harper*, Natalie Don*, Karen Adam*, Annabelle Ewing*, Bill Kidd*, Siobhian Brown*, Colin Beattie*, Pam Gosal*

S6M-07583 Lorna Slater: Environmental Regulation (Enforcement Measures) (Scotland) Amendment Order 2023 [draft]—That the Net Zero, Energy and Transport Committee recommends that the Environmental Regulation (Enforcement Measures) (Scotland) Amendment Order 2023 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Michael Matheson, Patrick Harvie, Màiri McAllan, Jenny Gilruth

S6M-07582 Christine Grahame: Penicuik Athletic and Football Strips for Malawi—That the Parliament congratulates Penicuik Athletic Youth Football Club on its donation of football equipment to sports academies in Malawi; understands that the club donated a consignment of strips and balls via Strips4Malawi, which were sent to the partner organisation, Play Football Malawi in the capital, Lilongwe, in the central region of the country; notes that the Strips4Malawi initiative aims to provide new and good condition used youth football team strips to partner youth sports academies in Lilongwe, Ekwendeni and Blantyre in a bid to encourage participation in sport among some of the most deprived young people in Malawi, and pays credit to the Penicuik Athletic Youth Football Club members on their generous and thoughtful donation, which will help to share their love of football with other young people in a developing country.

Supported by: Tess White*, Liam McArthur*, Miles Briggs*, Natalie Don*, Colin Beattie*, Fulton MacGregor*, Jenni Minto*, Alexander Stewart* R, Bill Kidd*, Murdo Fraser*, Emma Harper*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Stuart McMillan*, Jeremy Balfour*, Karen Adam*, Siobhian Brown*, Pam Gosal*, Maggie Chapman*, Bob Doris*

S6M-07581 Audrey Nicoll: Aberdeen Cyrenians Raise Nearly £40,000 in Festive Campaigns to Support Vulnerable People—That the Parliament congratulates Aberdeen Cyrenians on raising nearly £40,000 in two festive fundraising campaigns; understands that the north east-based charity has spent more than 50 years at the forefront of service, care and influence for Scotland's most vulnerable and socially excluded people; further understands that, in recent years, the local charity has seen a 600% increase in referrals to its various services and has distributed 80,325 meals with the help of the community; notes that the £39,742.50 raised will fund the charity's Direct Access Service, which is an open-door service available to anyone that offers non-judgmental advice and support, access to a food store and other essentials; commends the work of Aberdeen Cyrenians, and its generous partners and donors, for their role in assisting vulnerable individuals and families during the cost of living crisis, and sends its best wishes to everyone involved for continued success in the future.

S6M-07580 Jackie Baillie: West Dunbartonshire Citizens Advice Bureau—That the Parliament congratulates West Dunbartonshire Citizens Advice Bureau on, it understands, supporting 5,368 clients throughout 2022, helping them with almost 35,000 separate issues; considers that the ongoing cost of living crisis has had an impact on the demand for the charity's services; understands that the bureau helped clients secure £1.1 million in client financial gains, plus another £370,000 in debt write-offs throughout the year; acknowledges that 2022 was a year of change for West Dunbartonshire Citizens Advice Bureau as it went from traditional town centre offices to taking services out into the community at a number of outreach centres in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, and thanks the staff and volunteers for participating in a series of cost of living advice events during November and December 2022, alongside other advice agencies, to provide help, assistance and support to those most in need in the West Dunbartonshire community.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Foysol Choudhury*, Bill Kidd*, Pam Duncan-Glancy*, Colin Beattie*, Pam Gosal*, Jeremy Balfour*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-07579 Alexander Stewart: Alloa Rotary Club's Continued International Efforts for Ukraine—That the Parliament is delighted that the Rotary Club of Alloa is continuing in its international efforts of sending aid to Ukraine; understands that representatives from Clackmannanshire were recently in Edinburgh to meet with visiting Rotarians from Italy, having joined with a number clubs collectively working on the funding of specific projects to ensure that villages in Ukraine are not left without clean water or power, especially in light of reports that

Russia has been recently targeting energy and water infrastructure in Ukraine with missile and drone strikes, including on New Year's Eve and New Year's Day; believes that the project to supply professional water purification equipment, coupled with the project to ensure electric power generation to Ukrainian villages, are planned to be delivered through the Rotary Club of Warsaw City, which, it understands, has already formed a strong relationship with Rotary's Scottish District 1010 clubs, with Alloa visiting the Warsaw Club in 2020; considers that the water project aims to supply four self-contained water purification units, each capable of supplying 800 litres of pure water per hour at an estimated cost of €25,000 per unit; acknowledges that the Alloa club is co-ordinating contributions from a number of other Scottish clubs, with around £7,000 being sent so far, and that the money raised at the Rotary Ceilidh in the Dunmar House Hotel, Alloa, on 6 January 2023 will add to the fund; notes that the international project has already raised 75% of the target; understands that RC Milano Nord will apply for a Rotary Foundation Global Grant to enhance donations by 80%, and commends the Rotary Club of Alloa, its members, fundraisers, donators and all its international partners on what it sees as their tireless, selfless and highly-dedicated work. R

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.

Members' Corrections

Official Report, meeting of the Parliament, 6 December 2022

Alex Cole Hamilton has identified an error in his contribution and provided the following correction.

Alex Cole-Hamilton:

At col 24 paragraph 6—

Original text

Scotland met its emissions reductions for the first and, so far, only time in 2020, in the context of a national lockdown when everybody was at home, leaving the distinct impression that Covid has done more to curb emissions than the Scottish Government has managed so far.

Corrected text

Scotland only met its 2020 emission reduction target in the context of a national lockdown when everybody was at home, leaving the distinct impression that Covid has done more to curb emissions than the Scottish Government has managed so far.

Official Report, meeting Finance and Public Administration Committee on Tuesday 10 January 2023

The Deputy First Minister has identified an error in his contribution and provided the following correction.

The Deputy First Minister

At Col 54, paragraph 1—

Original text—

The first thing that I would say is that I do not consider our position to have a discernible effect on middle-income earners in Scotland. Essentially, the steps that we are taking are affecting individuals who are in the top two quartiles of the population in terms of earnings. We are concentrating the measures that we are taking on the top two quartiles—we are not discernibly affecting middle-income earners.

Corrected text—

The first thing that I would say is that I do not consider our position to have a discernible effect on middle-income earners in Scotland. Essentially, the steps that we are taking are affecting individuals who are in the top two deciles of the population in terms of earnings. We are concentrating the measures that we are taking on the top two deciles—we are not discernibly affecting middle-income earners.

Members' corrections are published alongside, but do not replace the original contribution and can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/chamber-and-committees/official-report/corrections-and-changes-to-the-official-report>

Corrections will be listed on the members 'corrections page of the Scottish Parliament website until the end of the session in which the correction was made. After that the correction will still be available in the Official Report of the relevant meeting.
