Rural Affairs, Land Reform and Islands

1. Liz Smith: To ask the Scottish Government, regarding any impact on agriculture, what discussions the rural affairs secretary has had with ministerial colleagues regarding how to protect rural areas against fly-tipping.

(S6O-05291)

2. Michelle Thomson: To ask the Scottish Government what assessment it has made of the Scottish Land & Estates report, Repopulating Rural Scotland, including how the recommendations align with its current strategies to address rural depopulation. (S6O-05292)

3. Mark Ruskell: To ask the Scottish Government what progress has been made to update national guidance for local authorities on their responsibilities to uphold public access rights. (S6O-05293)

4. Marie McNair: To ask the Scottish Government how it is supporting Forestry and Land Scotland to protect the Kilpatrick Hills. (S6O-05294)

5. Dr Pam Gosal MBE: To ask the Scottish Government whether it will provide an update on the progress Scotland is making towards becoming a Good Food Nation. (S6O-05295)

6. Sarah Boyack:

To ask the Scottish Government, in light of the recent ScotLand Futures report, which found that 96% of respondents believe that changes are needed regarding how land is owned and used, what steps it will take to ensure that land reform goes further than the current Land Reform (Scotland) Bill does to deliver land justice.

(S6O-05296)

7. James Dornan: [Withdrawn] (S6O-05297)

8. Liam Kerr: To ask the Scottish Government how many farmers in the North East Scotland region have applied for the Future Farming Investment Scheme this year, including how many of those were unsuccessful. (S6O-05298)

Health and Social Care

1. Humza Yousaf:

To ask the Scottish Government what action it is taking to address the health impacts of loneliness.

(S6O-05299)

2. Keith Brown: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of the population being expected to age rapidly over the coming decades, with more than one in five people soon to be of pension age, what measures it is taking to adapt health and social care provision to meet increased demand. (S6O-05300)

3. Jackie Dunbar: To ask the Scottish Government, following NHS Domestic Abuse Awareness Day, which took place on 10 December with the aim to shine a light on the high prevalence of domestic abuse affecting healthcare professionals, how it is supporting NHS boards to ensure that they have robust domestic abuse policies in place. (S6O-05301)

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for debate

S6M-20208 Karen Adam: Civil Legal Assistance in Scotland—That the Parliament notes the findings and recommendations in the Equalities, Human Rights and Civil Justice Committee's 3rd Report, 2025 (Session 6), Report on the Equalities, Human Rights and Civil Justice Committee inquiry into Civil Legal Assistance in Scotland (SP Paper 858).

S6M-20185 Jackson Carlaw: Petition PE2018: Recognise the Value of Swimming Pools and Provide Financial Relief to Help Keep Pools Open—That the Parliament notes public petition PE2018 on helping to keep swimming pools and leisure centres open by providing financial investment for pools.

Supported by: Fergus Ewing

S6M-20174 Angela Constance: Sentencing Bill - UK Legislation—That the Parliament agrees that all relevant provisions of the Sentencing Bill, introduced in the House of Commons on 2 September 2025, and subsequently amended, affecting changes which align the treatment of national security offenders with terrorist offenders under the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 and the Prisoners and Criminal Proceedings (Scotland) Act 1993, so far as these matters alter the executive competence of the Scottish Ministers, should be considered by the UK Parliament.

Supported by: Siobhian Brown

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-20209 Clare Haughey: James Aiton Primary School Achieves UNICEF Silver Rights Respecting School Award—That the Parliament congratulates James Aiton Primary School in Cambuslang for recently being awarded a Silver Rights Respecting School Award from UNICEF; understands that the Silver Award was presented in recognition of the school's work in promoting and championing a rights-based approach in all they do, which includes teaching and learning about rights, nurturing rights-respecting language and attitudes, involving pupils in decision-making, and becoming ambassadors for the rights of others; further understands that the school was particularly praised for its commitment to promoting wellbeing and for its approach to promoting pupil voice, with pupils from across the school involved in the assessment process; commends pupils, staff, parents and carers for being recognised for their efforts to build a school community where respect and equality are lived values, and wishes them all the very best for the future.

S6M-20195 Kevin Stewart: Tackling Discrimination for Doctors with Disabilities—That the Parliament welcomes the news that funding of over £800,000 has been awarded to a new project, led by the University of Aberdeen, which aims to explore the challenges that doctors with disabilities face in their careers; notes that the study, which is being led by the university's Centre for Healthcare Education Research and Innovation (CHERI), will seek to identify the barriers faced by doctors with disabilities and offer practical solutions to create equity; understands that the team will use data analysis, examination of current guidance, interviews and workplace observations to uncover why such disparities exist, and then share their findings with doctors, patients, employers and regulators; believes that ensuring doctors with disabilities do not face discrimination or limitations in their career progression is vital in ensuring that they can maximise their contribution to Scotland's NHS, and wishes the researchers well in their endeavours.

After section 6

Daniel Johnson

27 After section 6, insert—

<Monitoring and evaluation plan

- (1) A community wealth building partnership must, when publishing a community wealth building action plan under section 5, also publish a monitoring and evaluation plan for the local authority area.
- (2) A monitoring and evaluation plan under subsection (1) must set out targets, indicators and measures against which progress towards implementation of the community wealth building action plan will be measured, including—
 - (a) the proportion of local and regional spend by the community wealth building partnership in relation to the awarding of public procurement contracts,
 - (b) the proportion of spend with small and medium sized enterprises in relation to the awarding of public procurement contracts,
 - (c) the performance of businesses, including, for the local authority area and region—
 - (i) the number of new businesses established,
 - (ii) the total number of businesses,
 - (iii) the total business output,
 - (d) the proportion of—
 - (i) employees paid the Real Living Wage,
 - (ii) employers adhering to Fair Work criteria,
 - (e) employment outcomes, including—
 - (i) average wage,
 - (ii) level of unemployment,
 - (iii) availability of skills development programmes,
 - (f) the diversity of ownership models, including the number of businesses that are—
 - (i) employee-owned,
 - (ii) community-owned,
 - (iii) municipally-owned,
 - (iv) co-operatives,
 - (g) the variety of land use, including—
 - (i) use of the community right to buy,
 - (ii) such other use of land as the community wealth building partnership consider relevant,
 - (h) the proportion of community wealth building partnership pension funds invested locally and regionally,

- (i) the growth of local financial institutions, such as credit unions, and
 - (j) such other indicators as the community wealth building partnership considers appropriate.
- (3) The community wealth building partnership must—
 - (a) review progress against the monitoring and evaluation plan at least once in each financial year, and
 - (b) publish an annual performance report in such form and manner as the community wealth building partnership considers appropriate.
- (4) A report under subsection (3)(b) must include information on—
 - (a) actions taken during the period covered by the report to progress the objectives of the community wealth building plan, and
 - (b) resources used to progress those actions.>

After section 10

Daniel Johnson

28 After section 10, insert—

<Review

Review of action plans

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must, for each reporting period, carry out a review of progress to implement the measures set out in community wealth building action plans under section 5.
- (2) A review under subsection (1) must consider the information provided in reports under section (Monitoring and evaluation plan)(3)(b).
- (3) As soon as reasonably practicable after completing the review, the Scottish Ministers must—
 - (a) prepare and publish a report on the review, and
 - (b) lay a copy of the report before the Scottish Parliament.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, “reporting period” means—
 - (a) the period of 1 year beginning with the day on which the community wealth building action plan was first published,
 - (b) each subsequent period of 1 year while the community wealth building action plan remains in place.>

Daniel Johnson

29 After section 10, insert—

<Review

Review of legislation: community wealth building

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must, before the expiry of the period of 12 months beginning with the day of Royal Assent, carry out a review of whether community wealth building is supported by provision in the—
 - (a) Community Empowerment (Scotland) Act 2015, and
 - (b) Procurement Reform (Scotland) Act 2014.
- (2) The review under subsection (1) must include—
 - (a) an assessment of whether those Acts facilitate the effective implementation of the provisions contained in this Act, and
 - (b) if not, any recommendations for legislative change.
- (3) As soon as reasonably practicable after completing the review, the Scottish Ministers must—
 - (a) prepare and publish a report on the review,
 - (b) lay a copy of that report before the Scottish Parliament.>

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
