Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S6M-17830 Colin Beattie: Changes Celebrates Three Years of Befriending—That the Parliament congratulates Changes East Lothian on its befriending programme, which has successfully completed three years; notes that Changes' befriending programme connects people who are feeling lonely or isolated with friendly and supportive volunteer befrienders, to meet one-to-one on a regular basis; understands that the service has the aim of connecting the user with group-based activity to help them grow; commends the work of the volunteer befrienders, and thanks everyone at Changes East Lothian.

*S6M-17829 Roz McCall: Royal College of Occupational Therapists Launches Scotland Workforce Strategy Action Plan—That the Parliament welcomes the recent publication by the Royal College of Occupational Therapists (RCOT) of its Scotland workforce strategy action plan; understands that occupational therapists work across the NHS, local authorities, third sector, and within independent practice, and that currently there are over 550 working across NHS Tayside, NHS Forth Valley and NHS Fife; further understands that occupational therapists work with people of all ages and provide interventions for both physical and mental health needs; acknowledges that the action plan outlines the challenges facing the profession, which include but are not limited to growing demand on services and increased pressure, recruitment challenges, limited data to inform workforce planning, lack of financial sustainability, and limited routes into the profession; supports the actions and recommendations within the plan and understands how they will help to improve patient outcomes and workforce challenges across Scotland, and commits to working with RCOT to deliver the action plan.

*S6M-17828 Annabelle Ewing: Environmental Award for EATS Rosyth—That the Parliament congratulates EATS Rosyth on receiving the Green/Environmental Award at Fife Voluntary Action's (FVA) Volunteering and Voluntary Sector Awards; recognises that EATS Rosyth seeks, through connections to food and nature, to actively improve health and social inclusion, which it believes is vital for the wellbeing of everyone; acknowledges the wide range of projects that it has developed in pursuit of this ambition; further acknowledges all those recognised at the FVA Awards, and thanks all those involved in the wider voluntary sector.

*S6M-17827 Emma Harper: Specsavers Stranraer Fundraising Efforts—That the Parliament congratulates the team at Specsavers in Stranraer on its fundraising efforts to donate food and supplies to Apex Scotland in Stranraer; understands that the funds were raised through a fundraising raffle to support Apex, which provides provisions to families and residents in the community who may be struggling in today's financial climate; recognises what it considers to be the important lifeline that Apex Scotland provides, and extends its thanks to all at Specsavers who were involved in the fundraising event.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Annabelle Ewing*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Jeremy Balfour*, Stuart McMillan*

*S6M-17826 Marie McNair: Milngavie Pupil Wins Piano Category and is Named Runner-up in Scottish Young Musician Solo Performer of the Year 2025—That the Parliament congratulates Aeronwy Gault, a Music School of Douglas Academy student, on her achievements at the Scottish Young Musician's competition held at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland; understands that Aeronwy won the Piano category of the competition, and also received the runner-up prize; celebrates young musicians like Aeronwy across Scotland, and recognises the instrumental skill and technical talent on display at the Scottish Young Musician's competition.

*S6M-17825 Miles Briggs: Eilidh MacLeod Memorial Trust—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of the 2025 funding round by the Eilidh MacLeod Memorial Trust; notes that young musicians and community youth music groups across Scotland are invited to apply for financial support from the charity by 27 June; applauds what it considers to be the important work done by this charity in creating a musical legacy for Eilidh MacLeod, from the Isle of Barra, who died in the May 2017 Manchester Arena attack; congratulates the trustees on having distributed over £100,000 worth of small grants to more than 100 different community music organisations, and notes that, in 2024 alone, their funding supported in excess of 2,000 young musicians of all genres and disciplines across Scotland, and wishes the Eilidh MacLeod Memorial Trust every success in the future in continuing the significant impact that it has made since its creation in October 2018.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Douglas Ross*, Emma Roddick*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Edward Mountain*, Annabelle Ewing*, Tim Eagle*, Stuart McMillan*, Liam McArthur*

*S6M-17824 Emma Harper: Supporting First Aid Confidence in South Scotland Through the "Taking the Fear Out of First Aid" Campaign—That the Parliament recognises the results of a YouGov survey, commissioned by St Andrew's First Aid (SAFA), Scotland's only dedicated first aid charity, which show that South Scotland ranks highest in the country for first aid training, with 71% of residents stating that they have received some form of training, which, it understands, is 10% above the national average; considers that, despite what it sees as this strong foundation, significant barriers to intervention remain, with 59% of respondents expressing a fear of doing something wrong, 56% fearing they might make the situation worse, and 30% citing concerns about the legal consequences of stepping in to help, which is the highest of any region in Scotland; notes that, while over half (58%) of those surveyed in South Scotland said that they would be confident in assisting during a first aid emergency, these fears still inhibit wider public confidence and response, and supports SAFA's Taking the Fear Out of First Aid campaign, which seeks to address these concerns, build trust in first aid knowledge, and ensure that people across South Scotland and the country as a whole feel empowered to act in emergency situations.

*S6M-17822 Monica Lennon: Congratulating RSE on Receiving the Prestigious King's Award for Enterprise in Innovation—That the Parliament congratulates RSE on receiving the prestigious King's Award for Enterprise in Innovation; acknowledges that this award recognises RSE's development of modular water treatment systems, which, it understands, offer rapid deployment, scalability, and significant reductions in carbon emissions; considers that these innovations have positioned RSE as a leader in sustainable water solutions, benefiting communities across the UK; commends RSE's commitment to fostering skilled employment in the Highlands, with a workforce exceeding 2,000 and a strong emphasis on apprenticeships and graduate programmes, and celebrates this achievement as a testament to what it sees as the ingenuity and dedication of Scottish engineering.

*S6M-17820 Ariane Burgess: Celebrating the Launch of Affric Highlands as a Standalone Charity—That the Parliament congratulates the Affric Highlands initiative on becoming a standalone organisation and achieving charitable status; understands that this milestone marks the culmination of three years of development and incubation by the conservation charity Trees for Life; acknowledges the leadership of Stephanie Kiel, who joined Trees for Life in November 2021 as team leader for the initiative and now serves as executive director of Affric Highlands; celebrates the initiative's vision for large-scale ecological restoration and community regeneration across the Central Highlands, and wishes the new organisation every success as it embarks on this exciting new chapter in delivering nature-based solutions and supporting thriving communities in the region.

*S6M-17819 Jeremy Balfour: Carers Week 2025, Carers Trust Partnership with the Royal Zoological Society of Scotland—That the Parliament acknowledges that 9 to 15 June is Carers Week 2025; notes that this year's theme, Caring About Equality, highlights what it sees as the inequalities facing unpaid carers in Scotland today and the steps that it believes are needed to create a fairer society for unpaid carers; notes that 12 June 2025 focuses on younger carers and the inequalities that it believes they face; recognises the exciting partnership between Carers Trust Scotland and the Royal Zoological Society of Scotland (RZSS), allowing over 150 young carers to attend Edinburgh Zoo free of charge on 12 June 2025; appreciates what it sees as the importance of equal access to nature and wildlife for all; considers that this is an important moment to ensure that young unpaid carers can connect with nature and have fun at the zoo; believes that young carers deserve respite from their caring roles and that all young carers should have a right to a break; highlights what it sees as the important work of RZSS community programmes, which it considers inspire and enable people to connect with nature in ways meaningful to them, with the ultimate aim of creating a world where nature is protected, valued and loved; recognises what it sees as the vital support that local carer organisations provide to young carers and unpaid carers across Scotland; further recognises what it sees as the importance of Carers Week 2025 in highlighting the inequalities that it believes all unpaid carers in Scotland face, including a greater risk of poverty, social isolation, and poor mental and physical health; highlights what it sees as the urgent need to address and overcome these inequalities; believes that appropriate services and support should be available to all young carers across Scotland to ensure that their rights are upheld, they have a fair chance to follow their aspirations, they achieve their full potential and live fulfilled lives, and wishes all young carers taking part a very enjoyable day at Edinburgh Zoo.

*S6M-17818 Jackson Carlaw: Eastwood Writers' Group Achieves Success at National Competition—That the Parliament congratulates the Eastwood Writers' group on winning a total of four categories at the annual Scottish Association of Writers Conference; understands that the Eastwood group also won trophies in five categories and received three commendations; notes that the Eastwood Writers' group was established in 1984 and that it meets weekly at Clarkston

New Subordinate Legislation

Subject to negative procedure

The following instrument was laid before the Parliament on 5 June 2025 and is subject to the negative procedure—

Charities \(Regulation and Administration\) \(Scotland\) Act 2023 \(Commencement No. 2, Transitional and Saving Provisions\) Regulations 2025 \(SSI 2025/168\)

Laid under section 30(2) of the Interpretation and Legislative Reform (Scotland) Act 2010.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
