

Social Justice and Social Security Committee
Thursday 30 October 2025
27th Meeting, 2025 (Session 6)

Wellbeing and Sustainable Development (Scotland) Bill

Note by the Clerk

Background

1. The Social Justice and Social Security Committee will hold its second Stage 1 evidence session on the Wellbeing and Sustainable Development \(Scotland\) Bill.
2. The Wellbeing and Sustainable Development (Scotland) Bill is a Member's Bill, which was introduced on 27 March 2025 by Sarah Boyack MSP.

Overview of the Bill

3. The Bill creates a new public duty, which requires all public bodies to have due regard for the need to promote wellbeing and sustainable development in the exercise of their functions. It also establishes statutory definitions of the terms “wellbeing” and “sustainable development” for the purposes of the Bill.
4. The Bill also establishes a Future Generations Commissioner for Scotland (“the Commissioner”), whose general function will be to promote the wellbeing of future generations by promoting sustainable development by public bodies in all aspects of their decisions, policies and actions. The Commissioner would be appointed by and financially accountable to the Scottish Parliamentary Corporate Body (SPCB) and be independent from government.
