Purpose

5. These regulations will implement the arrangement introduced in 2017 by increasing councillors' pay by 5.2% with effect from 1 April 2022.

Delegated Powers and Law Reform Committee consideration

6. At its meeting on 1 February 2022, the Committee considered the following instrument(s) and determined that it did not need to draw the attention of the Parliament to (any of) the instrument(s) on any grounds within its remit.

7. A copy of the Explanatory Notes and the Policy Notes are included with the papers.

Procedure for Negative Instruments

8. Negative instruments are instruments that are "subject to annulment" by resolution of the Parliament for a period of 40 days after they are laid. All negative instruments are considered by the Delegated Powers and Law Reform Committee (on various technical grounds) and by the relevant lead committee (on policy grounds). Under Rule 10.4, any member (whether or not a member of the lead committee) may, within the 40-day period, lodge a motion for consideration by the lead committee recommending annulment of the instrument. If the motion is agreed to, the Parliamentary Bureau must then lodge a motion to annul the instrument for consideration by the Parliament.

9. If that is also agreed to, Scottish Ministers must revoke the instrument. Each negative instrument appears on a committee agenda at the first opportunity after the Delegated Powers and Law Reform Committee has reported on it. This means that, if questions are asked or concerns raised, consideration of the instrument can usually be continued to a later meeting to allow correspondence to be entered into or a Minister or officials invited to give evidence. In other cases, the Committee may be content simply to note the instrument and agree to make no recommendation on it.

Scottish Government Policy Note

THE LOCAL GOVERNANCE (SCOTLAND) ACT 2004 (REMUNERATION) AMENDMENT REGULATIONS 2022 SSI 2022/18

The above instrument is made by the Scottish Ministers in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 11 and 16(2) of the Local Governance (Scotland) Act 2004 and all other powers enabling them to do so. It is subject to the negative procedure. These regulations will implement the arrangement introduced in 2017 by increasing councillors' pay by 5.2% with effect from 1 April 2022.

Policy Objectives

This instrument makes provision in relation to the remuneration of local authority councillors. It amends the Local Governance (Scotland) Act 2004 (Remuneration) Regulations 2007 to increase the level of remuneration payable to local authority councillors by 5.2%.

Consultation

There is no requirement for the Scottish Ministers to undertake a consultation before implementing an increase on councillors' salaries. Ministers are following the procedure established in 2017, to increase councillors' pay annually in line with the percentage increase in the median annual earnings of public sector workers in Scotland. This information is published by the Office of National Statistics in the Annual Survey of Hours and Earnings.

Impact Assessments

An equality impact assessment has not been undertaken as the increase in councillors' remuneration applies to all local authority members. The Scottish Ministers have decided that a Business Regulatory Impact Assessment is not required as there is no impact on business or the third sector and the impact on the public sector (council budgets) is not expected to cause a significant financial pressure.

Financial Effects

The salary increase would be met from existing council budgets: it is estimated that for 2022-23 the total cost would be around £1,487,153 across all 32 councils. Local Government and Analytical Services Division The Scottish Government January 2022.
